

9/11 Commemorative TattooCorrection: commentaire à trous

This document is a _____ picture/photograph. In the _____ there's the American flag (called _____ or _____) and in the _____ there's a man, presumably a _____ (GB)/ _____ (US) because he's holding a _____ under his left _____. The picture must have been taken in the USA shortly after the _____ which took place on September 11th 2001, widely called 9/11 attacks. The fireman has got a _____ all over his _____ which represents the _____ and _____ twin towers in the middle and names on the left. The names must be those of firemen who died in the _____ of 9/11 victims. It must be the names of the members of his fire _____ who died while they were trying to rescue the victims from the debris. In the bottom left, we can notice/note the hand and the _____ of the statue of liberty.

The man must have got this tattoo to _____ to the firemen who died for the _____ of the American nation. He must have made it in _____ of his colleagues/partners/team mates.

Maybe he felt _____ to be alive while some of his _____ died or were _____. Like his colleagues who bear the _____ of the attacks, he wants to bear them too. He must have been really _____ by the event.

_____, it's a proof of _____ .

9/11 Commemorative TattooCorrection: commentaire à trous

This document is a _____ picture/photograph. In the _____ there's the American flag (called _____ or _____) and in the _____ there's a man, presumably a _____ (GB)/ _____ (US) because he's holding a _____ under his left _____. The picture must have been taken in the USA shortly after the _____ which took place on September 11th 2001, widely called 9/11 attacks. The fireman has got a _____ all over his _____ which represents the _____ and _____ twin towers in the middle and names on the left. The names must be those of firemen who died in the _____ of 9/11 victims. It must be the names of the members of his fire _____ who died while they were trying to rescue the victims from the debris. In the bottom left, we can notice/note the hand and the _____ of the statue of liberty.

The man must have got this tattoo to _____ to the firemen who died for the _____ of the American nation. He must have made it in _____ of his colleagues/partners/team mates.

Maybe he felt _____ to be alive while some of his _____ died or were _____. Like his colleagues who bear the _____ of the attacks, he wants to bear them too. He must have been really _____ by the event.

_____, it's a proof of _____ .

9/11 Commemorative TattooCorrection: commentaire à trous

This document is a _____ picture/photograph. In the _____ there's the American flag (called _____ or _____) and in the _____ there's a man, presumably a _____ (GB)/ _____ (US) because he's holding a _____ under his left _____. The picture must have been taken in the USA shortly after the _____ which took place on September 11th 2001, widely called 9/11 attacks. The fireman has got a _____ all over his _____ which represents the _____ and _____ twin towers in the middle and names on the left. The names must be those of firemen who died in the _____ of 9/11 victims. It must be the names of the members of his fire _____ who died while they were trying to rescue the victims from the debris. In the bottom left, we can notice/note the hand and the _____ of the statue of liberty.

The man must have got this tattoo to _____ to the firemen who died for the _____ of the American nation. He must have made it in _____ of his colleagues/partners/team mates.

Maybe he felt _____ to be alive while some of his _____ died or were _____. Like his colleagues who bear the _____ of the attacks, he wants to bear them too. He must have been really _____ by the event.

_____, it's a proof of _____ .