

Ask questions to your partner to complete Meriwether LEWIS's biography, then answer the questions he / she will ask you about William CLARK:

LEWIS, Meriwether (1774 – 1.1809),

American explorer, born in Ivy, Va. He served in the 2. army before 1801 when he became the private secretary to President 3. Thomas Jefferson. In 1803 Jefferson appointed him commander of 4. an expedition to explore the new territory acquired in the Louisiana Purchase. Lewis chose the American explorer 5. William CLARK as joint commander; the expedition (see LEWIS AND CLARK EXPEDITION,), a remarkable achievement, ended in 6. 1806, and the following year Lewis was made governor of 7. the northern part of the Louisiana Territory. During this time he was troubled by 8. financial problems and apparently by problems with alcohol and depression. He died at 9. Grinder's Inn on the Natchez trail in Tennessee, while en route to Washington, D.C.; 10. historians debate whether he was murdered or committed suicide. Meriwether Lewis National Monument in Tennessee, which commemorates Lewis's achievements, is in the Natchez Trace National Parkway (established in 1938).

An article from Funk & Wagnalls® New Encyclopedia. © 2006 World Almanac Education Group. All rights reserved.

Write down the questions you will ask your partner on the following lines:

1. When did he die ?
2. Where did he serve before 1801 ?
3. Who did he become the private secretary to ?
4. What was he appointed commander of ?
5. Who did he choose as joint commander ?
6. When did the expedition end ?
7. What was he made governor of ?
8. Which problems was he troubled by ?
9. Where did he die ?
10. Who debate whether he was murdered or committed suicide ?

CLARK, William (1.1770 – 1838),

American soldier and explorer, born in Caroline Co., Va. About 1789 he entered the 2. U.S. Army ; while serving with Gen. Anthony Wayne in an Indian campaign in 1795, he met the American explorer 3. Meriwether LEWIS. In 1803 Lewis asked Clark to join him on an expedition through the newly acquired 4. Louisiana Purchase. What is now known as the LEWIS AND CLARK EXPEDITION, (q.v.) began at 5. Saint Louis, Mo., on 6. May 14, 1804, and ended at the same city on Sept. 23, 1806. During the long journey Clark drew 7. maps and illustrated wildlife of the region. After his return he worked on the reports of the trip. In 1807 he was commissioned a brigadier general in the militia in what was later the 8. Missouri Territory and became superintendent of 9. Indian affairs at St. Louis. He became governor of the territory in 1813 and spent the next eight years quelling Indian disturbances, which were particularly bitter during the War of 1812. He later turned to surveying, and in 1828 he 10. designed Paducah, Ky.

An article from Funk & Wagnalls® New Encyclopedia. © 2006 World Almanac Education Group. All rights reserved.

Write down the questions you will ask your partner on the following lines:

1. When was he born ?
2. What did he enter about 1789 ?
3. Who did he meet in 1795 ?
4. What was newly acquired ?
5. Where did the expedition begin ?
6. When did it begin ?
7. What did he draw during the long journey ?
8. Where was he commissioned a brigadier general ?
9. Which affairs did he become superintendent of ?
10. What (do) did he do in 1828 ?