

NEWS HEADLINES

1- Match the pictures and the headlines

A BREAKTHROUGH IN MIDEAST MEDIATION

B YUGOSLAVIA LIKE A VOLCANO

D GENETIC TEST FIRST FOR UK

1

2

3

2- Match the short summary of the news with the picture and headline

Vojislav Kostunica admits to pressures within his ruling coalition as allies of Slobodan Milosevic cling on to power.

For the first time, UK insurers are to be allowed to use genetic test results to identify people with hereditary illnesses.

The United Nations says there has been a breakthrough in talks aimed at ending two weeks of bloodshed between the Palestinians and Israelis.

NEWS HEADLINES

3. Match the following headlines with the right section

Politics

Economics

Home

Advert

Religion

Health

Overseas news

Arts

Education

Finance / Business

Sports

Features

Drug offers new hope to cancer patients

Catholic leader says celibacy rule could go

Crisis for the new Wembley

A return to old fashioned values

Blair urged to delay election

A big world needs a big bank

For teachers vote to hold strike ballot

Blair pledges to fight for Rover

The snake that sneaked into a tumble drier

U.K troops for Sierra Leone

South African lose patience with Mugabe

Peaceful protesters terrorise London

Crashing Euro will need more than an interest rate rise

Harry's schoolmate dies in jetski horror

NHS must prescribe healthy margarine?

Now Toshiba portable PC users can access special offers and content from the web

Farewell to the vicar of Fleet Street

English tunnels criticised for security shortfalls

Aide quits Livingstone campaign

Hostages held in jungle hut

Early Verdi gets the applause

Coulthard beats the pain barrier

Beware of cash buyers